

CITY JUDGE

City Solons Take Off Name of W. J. Harvey in the Fifty-Fourth District.

ELECTION JUDGES RESIGN

CITY RECORDER EMPOWERED TO FILL THESE VACANCIES.

Forced through statements in The Herald-Republican to make a change in the Fifty-fourth election district, where the American party men had been named as election judges, the council last night decided to take off the name of W. J. Harvey and add another one. The name chosen later, probably Carl Reynolds, City Recorder J. B. Moreton was relieved from the council committee, Mayor Reed and the name of Ben T. Lloyd of the Democratic party, by saying that the name had been suggested by Mr. Reed and that he (Reed) didn't know he was an American party man.

A number of resignations of election judges have been received, and to have this work attended to the city recorder was empowered to fill vacancies so that no work should be left over for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights for the instruction of the judges. The new names will be approved next Monday night.

Protest Is Heard.

W. J. Buttle, representing many property owners in sewer extension 23, sent a communication to the city recorder stating that more than two-thirds of the property owners had protested against the work. There are about 100 feet in the extension, and Buttle claimed that protesters represented more than 5000 feet. The city engineer reported only 22,000 feet and the council took the word of public works to advertise for bids. This action was received last night, and the matter sent to the engineering committee, before which Buttle will appear Thursday. The committee will also return to the city engineer to check.

The council named Friday, Oct. 22, at 8:30 a. m., when it will board Western Pacific cars for the day's trip over the line to Nevada lake, upon invitation of S. V. Derrah.

Each member of the council was instructed by the mayor to appear at the city recorder's office at 8:30 a. m. on Saturday next. City Recorder Moreton fought with the invitation for a time and then gave it up, but all the councilmen knew what it meant.

Mysterious Fire Plans.

L. D. Martin's little boiler came up last night in the shape of a job for $125.25 from H. F. Webb, an architect, for plans for a fire station. Webb, the city engineer never saw the plans, specifications or drawings of this building, the work being done through Councilman Martin.

Fred A. Simmonds was made a special officer at the Colonial theatre, and E. Glaser was named as a special policeman on Brigham street, between Fourth and Ninth East streets. Glaser has been in police court twice while a special officer at the Saltair and convicted on charges of battery.

Building Inspector A. B. Hirth

submitted his report for the quarter ending Sept. 30, showing building permits issued amounting to $1,950,000, and fees amounting to $1,283.30.

On recommendation of the sanitary committee, the city recorder was asked to issue a permit to the Utah Gas & Coke company to pipe refuse matter to the river or connect with a sewer, though J. C. Rose, general manager, said the plant was not sending any refuse into the ditches near Ninth West and First South streets. The committee report read that "an investigation was made which shows that an obnoxious nuisance is being discharged by the Utah Gas & Coke company, and that the city engineer see that this order is complied with by the said Utah Gas & Coke company."

The committee has declined to report on the report from Health Commissioner M. R. Stewart, but the matter was sent back and the health commissioner was forced to admit that refuse was flowing into the ditches.

COUNCILMAN SURPRISED.

Has Alleged "Mashers" Arrested, but Jury Acquits One.

After Councilman L. D. Martin and Attorney M. E. Wilson had testified that they had seen C. O. Heare insult more than eight women on Main street the night of September 15, four men brought in a verdict of not guilty in police court yesterday afternoon. Heare was charged with battery.

Many complaints of women being annoyed have been received, so when Heare and William Godfrey were arrested Oct. 8 on complaint of Councilman Martin the police declared Heare would be given six months in jail, but the chain gang, Godfrey admitted his guilt and was fined $25, but the jury acquitted Heare.
